CASE RALLY

Case Rally 1991

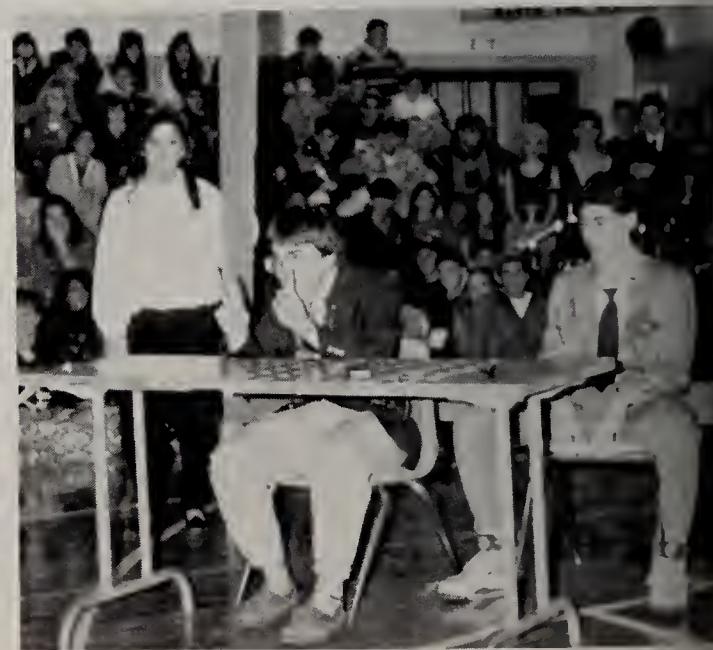

After being totally robbed of a victory last November, this year's seniors, the class of 1991, were more than ready for a win. And win was exactly what they did in the 1991 Case Rally. Since it was Mr. Wright's first season as head football coach, the seniors decided to give him a proper initiation. Starring Dan Smith as Coach Wright, the skit was about pitiful Case trying to get the coach to throw the Thanksgiving Day game by stealing his precious Porsche! Fortunately, Coach Wright's guardian angel (Gregg Silva) triumphed over the devil (Jeff Mello as SATAN) and Somerset won. Overall, all classes did a great job- even the juniors managed to come in something other than last! And Seniors—wasn't it about time!?!?!?!?

Somerset's Young Woman Of The Year 1992

America's Young Woman of the Year is a scholarship program intended to honor outstanding high school senior girls. The contestants are judged in five categories: scholastic achievement, creative and performing arts, panel evaluation, and presence and composure. The Somerset program which is sponsored by the Lion's Club, took place on November 23, 1991. This year's candidates included: Jane Lawrence from Dighton-Rehoboth, Carol Cook, Mia DeMarco, Rebecca Gagnon, Katie Killoran, Amy Leite, Bethany Lyons, and Tracey Rebello, all from Somerset. Award winners were: second runner-up, Rebecca Gagnon; first runner-up, Mia DeMarco; and the winner, Katie Killoran.

CHEERING

The season was great! It all started in June, when a brand new cheerleading squad was chosen. This squad consisted of 18 girls. They all traveled to the University of Rhode Island, for the U.C.A. Cheerleading Camp. The girls worked very hard through four days of intense heat, but it paid off. They came out on top, with a first place win in a dance competition, and the Master Key To Spirit award.

In September, they started cheering for the football team. They had incredible crowd support, especially at the Thanksgiving Day game. The girls ended their season with a definite bang. They came in third place in the MACC cheerleading competition. GOOD JOB GIRLS!!!

"Give these girls a hand!!!"

This was our 27th year of cross-country at Somerset High School. The team, led by seniors Chris Baldwin, Kathy Fitzsimmons, Sarah Johnson, and Josh Goldberg, competed at such places as Wheaton College, Brown University, and Franklin Park. It was an exciting year and won't be soon forgotten.

At the beginning of the season, the girls were without two of their key runners. Meeting the challenge, each girl realized her responsibility and worked twice as hard. Everyone worked together and that is the key to a sport such as cross-country. The girls' team ended the season with a 4-4 record and placed third in the Conference - a great accomplishment considering the obstacles thrown in our way.

The boys' team worked very hard and persistently worked their way to a 4-4 record also. The success of this year's boys team was an example of how determination, diligence, and commitment pay off. There is a great number of talented boys on the J.V. team, which will ensure the Somerset tradition of victory for the future.

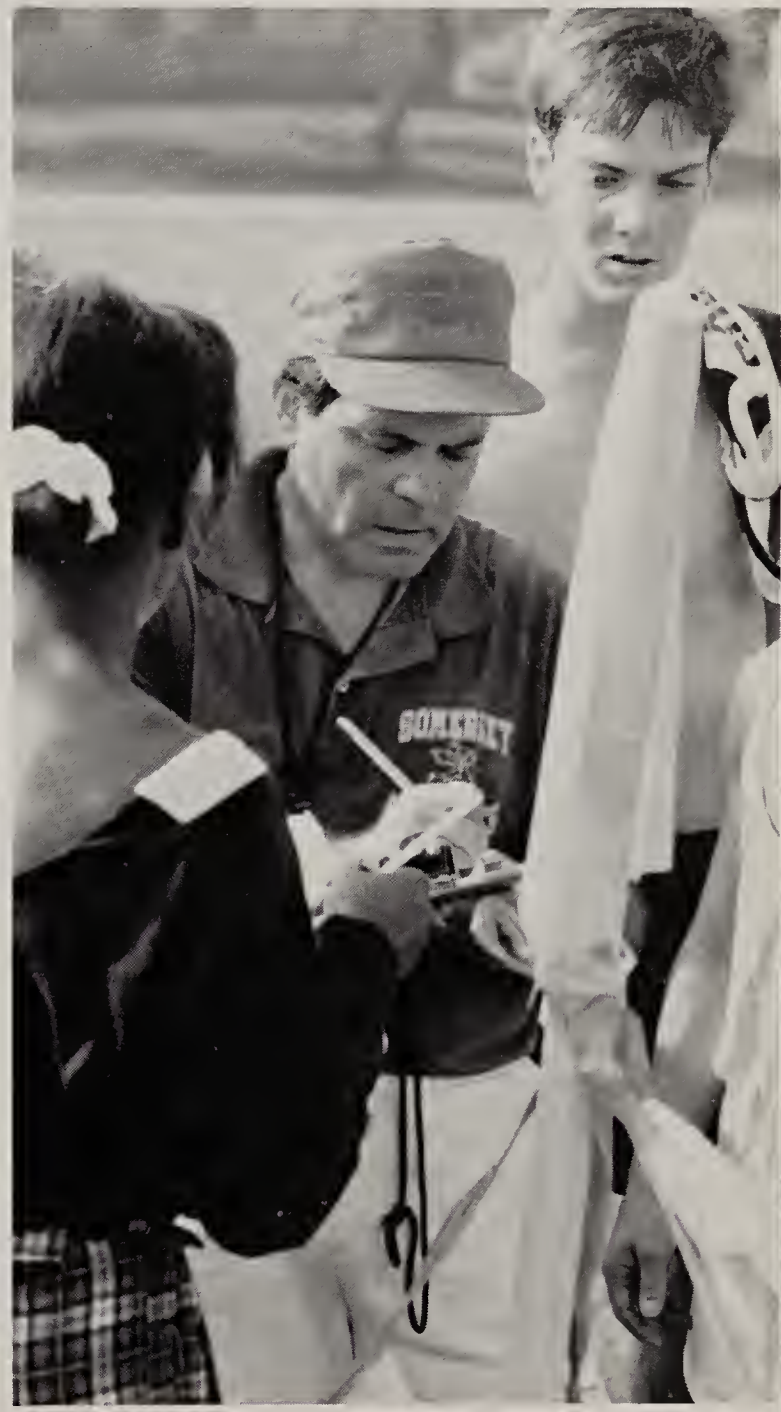

Some highlights of this season were: Freshman Jen Paquin's first place shaving at the Wampanoag Invitational Cross-Country Meet, Nick Palmisciano's win at the Eastern Athletic Conference, the win against Coyle-Cassidy, which was dedicated to the four seniors, and, of course, the great wrestling matches between Coach B. and Steven Belanger! Thanks B. and as a senior I'd like to say one last thing. NO MORE TRACK WORKOUTS! K.F.

FIELD HOCKEY

The varsity field hockey team entered the 1991 season with high expectations. Under the strong leadership of captains Andrea Cabral, Christina Burgmeyer and Lynn Souza, they began their preparation early in the summer. This year, the team was fortunate to have a strong combination of talent, including many returning varsity starters. Andrea Cabral was honored as a Boston Globe All-Star and, along with Jen Dopart, as a Herald News All-Star. Although the team missed the tournament by only a few points, they played well together against some tough teams. A special thanks goes to Sue Curt, who worked her hardest to make the team what it was. She will be leaving her post as Somerset High field hockey coach after ten years.

SOCCER

The Somerset Soccer team finished the season with an overall record of 5-10-3 and a conference record of 4-5-3. However, the record does not reflect the amount of time and effort that the players and Coach Horton put into this season. The team had a good balance of young players and senior leadership. This year's tri-captains were Brad Rego, Dave Rego, and Jay Tavares. Brad Rego was the cornerstone of the Raider defense; Dave Rego was the team's leading scorer; and Tavares proved to be one of the best goalies in the E.A.C. Other seniors that were big contributors were Roy Machado, Fredrico de Olivera, Tommy O' Shaunessy, and Greg Silva. After a rough start the team came together and began to play as a unit, rather than as individuals. It was this team unity that led to the Raiders incredible 2-0 victory over league champion Dartmouth. Along with the win over Dartmouth, their only loss in the league, the season was highlighted by a 2-0 win over the Mayflower league champion, Westport.

They were not undefeated, nor were they league champions, but the success of the 1991 Somerset Blue Raider Varsity Football Team cannot be measured by wins and losses alone. Under the tutelage of new head coach John Wright, the Blue Raiders displayed characteristics that are necessary for a successful season: enthusiasm, pride, and heart. The team's enthusiasm and spirit was rewarded with victories over Bourne, rival Durfee, and arch rival Case. The team's determination was also evident in a hard fought 13 - 6 loss to EAC champion Dartmouth. Ties against Coyle and Feehan prevented the Raiders from achieving a .500 season. The team's refusal to quit can be traced to its leadership, All- Conference senior Co-captains Devon Keeney and Mike Rauner. Besides their captains, the team was led by seniors Tom Killoran, Jim Finlaw, Chad Kelley, Ron Mederios, Joe Ganen, Jeff Mello, Scott Phelan, Aaron Allen, and Dan Smith. The highlight of the season came on Thanksgiving Day, when the Blue Raiders defeated the Case victory brought the 49er trophy back to its rightful owners, and ended Case's hopes of tying the consecutive victory streak on Thanksgiving. The 1991 Blue Raiders brought pride and spirit to Somerset football, and their achievement on Thanksgiving Day will not soon be forgotten.

DEBATE

This year's debate team is one of the largest ever, with three teams competing at the varsity level and two at the novice level. Somerset debaters take part in the Eastern Massachusetts Debate Conference, where they are one of the top ranked teams. Coach Charles Levesque has to be commended for his dedication to his team. Debate has one of the longest seasons (from September to March) and he is with us all the way. Senior debaters this year are: Ellen Taylor, Kathy Fitzsimmons, and Jennifer Barrett. The debate team holds high hopes for continued success throughout the season and many more to come!

PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE

To My Fellow Classmates,

For a great deal of time I've been trying to find a way to sum up four years in this tiny yearbook space. There is so much to be written and so little space to write it. In order for me to write about every experience I've had these past four years, I'd need every page in this yearbook. So what I've decided to do is write a few poems that could try to sum up the times we've experienced together, because if I continue to write this letter any further, small children will be sacrificed to the Gods of Boring Yearbook Letters.

Thank you for the great times and all the fond memories. It has been an honor to be your President and good luck in everything you wish to pursue in life.

Thanks,

Todd Casilli

Arrival and Departure

We arrived here together,
Scared and frightened.
We depart here together,
Confident and Enlightened.

Memories of the Past

Memories in the sand
Written over the past four years,
By a passing wave
Cannot be washed or cleared.

A Farewell

I sit inside this cafeteria
And thoughts of depression hit my mind
Next year my friends won't be sitting her
But in another seat will be their behind.

The future lay ahead, dangerous and unpredictable
Our lives will be pushed the extra mile
But in the end, we'll return as friends
And on our faces, at class reunions, will be a smile.

The Case Rally

As Freshmen, the Night Court skit was extremely poor,
As Sophs, we went and knocked on the
wizard's door,
As Juniors, the nerdy morons saved the day.
As Seniors, we rocked the house till the month of May.

Our Best Wishes To The Class Of 1992

Hi Everyone!

We are glad to say that the 1992 Raider has been a success. With a lot of time and hard work we have put together a yearbook filled with memorable memories of our years at Somerset High. The editors and staff have enjoyed putting this book together. We hope that it will always bring back many memories to you in the future.

A special thanks, goes to Mr. LaMothe. Without his support and patience this yearbook would never have been possible. Thank to Liz Ricardo our typist. You did a great job! We also would like to thank the yearbook staff. You all helped in making the 1992 Raider a great success.

We were honored to be this year's yearbook editors. Congratulations to the Class of '92. We finally made it! Best Wishes and Good Luck in the Future!

Steph, Jesse,
Becky and Kate

P.S. Our gratitude is also extended to our photographer, Joseph Geoffroy of Chestnut Hill Studios, and our Jostens' representative, Norval Garnett.

Autographs
